

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

Style Counsel

A crown embroidery made by Ann Carrington, using thousands of pearl buttons, reigns supreme above a Mary Fox Linton sofa

Style Counsel

For her west London mansion, Jessica Stead sought a look more distinctive than today's luxury-by-numbers - one that would express the quirks of her personality. Why, then, did she seek help from an ultra-hip design consultant who had never tackled a private house before? Ros Byam Shaw finds the answer in a home that's beyond fashion. Photography: Annabel Elston

